I have lived in beautiful Bunbury with my family since 2011. I am thankful to the Bunbury Community and Western Australia for welcoming us and creating a sense of belonging to this beautiful corner of the world. I have travelled around the world from India during my medical undergraduate and postgraduate training years to become a specialist doctor in adult and older adult medicine with special interests in Parkinson's disease, Memory loss and neurological problems. I have been actively involved in multiple community and charitable events including hosting the annual breast cancer Mother's Day walk since 2015. I am an avid cricket fan for both indoor and outdoor cricket games. I am the President of South West Indian Group Inc (SWIG) well known for its iconic multicultural Indian themed events including Bunbury Diwali - Festival of Lights event.

If elected as a councillor, I will endeavour to be the voice of the Bunbury community with a creative, collaborative and compassionate approach.
