Decision Making: Governance Framework

Council Committees. To assist with its decision-making responsibilities, Council is able to establish committees from time to time. The work of committees is significant in local government due to the wide range of activities and functions of Council. Committees report to Council and are subject to the requirements of the Act and the City's meeting procedures for meetings.

Assessment Panels are established by Council under the terms of the respective Council policies under which they fall.

Working Groups are established from time-to-time as a mechanism for facilitating and improving broader participation in the City's decision-making process.

While not formally established under legislation, working groups provide an engagement mechanism for Elected Members, staff and, where appropriate the community, on a wide range of issues. The opportunity to obtain such views assists Elected Members and Council to address strategic issues and priorities at their genesis, well before the culmination of ideas results in a report to Council or a Committee. Working groups make recommendations to the organisation, who in turn detail those recommendations and comments within formal reports to Council or a Committee on a particular issue or topic.

External Groups are not committees of Council but are external boards of management that are either constitutionally required to have City of Bunbury Councillors as members or have requested that Council nominate an elected representative to become a member.

Previous Council Decisions relating to Council Committees:

Council Decision 335/13 from the Ordinary Council Meeting held on 26 November 2013 when administrating Committees of Council states:

'That Council:

1. Request that the Committees retained appoint a Councillor as the Presiding Member to enable more effective reporting back to Council in relation to Committee items and recommendations.
2. Require that the Minutes of all Committees are to be provided to Council for noting with a separate report being provided on all items requiring a resolution of Council.
3. Require each Committee to set an annual meeting program which will be advertised to enable members of the public to attend.
